From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters of Saint Thomas,

For four weeks we have prepared ourselves for the awesome celebration of the birth of Jesus. We rejoice at a renewed hope which will journey with us into the new year. Moreover, the renewed hope we share reminds us that we do not journey alone. The infant born in Bethlehem, who the world celebrates on Christmas, travels with us through the joys and trials of life. We give thanks to God.

Merry Christmas!
